Who do you prank with?

[image]

These ideas were not mine and came from this book by rosibelle: https://my.w.tt/fJXMj8Jh6Y

Aries: Australia - You and Australia decided to go to a crowded elevator/lift. You then grab a bag with a hole in it and sarcastically said, "Sh*t. The snake's gone loose." You and Australia secretly giggled as people start to panic.

Taurus: America - You and America disguise like grannies and start to break dance in Walmart. People look at you guys in shock like you're gonna break your bones.

Gemini: New Zealand - You guys go to a dog washing place. You put a hot dog with a collar named Chris P. Bacon (Even though he's a hot dog) and a leash attached to it. After you put Chris on the counter, you guys run away.

Cancer: You didn't prank with anyone but you argued with Britain because your doughnut had a "hole" in it.

Leo: Germany - You and Germany pretend to be spies and stare at Spain intently. When Spain looks back at you guys, you two whispered into your shirts. "Subject 472 is spotted. I repeat. 472 is spotted.".

Virgo: Malaysia - You two went next to a stranger while pretending your on call and stared at them the whole time. While saying into your phone "Is the sniper in place?" "Okay, The victim is next to me." "3.....2.....1....". You and Malaysia burst into fits of laughter as the stranger ran away.

Libra: You didn't prank anyone but you questioned China if he calls Chinese food, Chinese food or just food.

Scorpio: You pranked alone. You dressed as a potato and found

America eating fries. You ran towards him and yelled, "HOW COULD YOU DO THIS TO MY POOR LITTLE JOEY?!?!?!".

Sagittarius: Japan - You two blast Boku No Hero Academia music at max volume at 4am. Everyone woke up to this and told you guys to stop, but you didn't! ¯_(ツ)_/¯

Capricorn: Canada - You put up a missing dog poster but instead, it had a hot dog on it named Chris P. Bacon. Somehow, Gemini decided to tag along.

Aquarius: South Korea - You and South Korea emptied out 2 bottles of mayonnaise but kept the label on it and filled it with vanilla pudding. You two went around in the public eating out of the bottles. North Korea saw what you guys were doing and was disgusted.

Pisces: Russia - You guys went around the kitchen, replacing all the clear drinks with vodka. You kept the clear drinks in a secret compartment in your room.

Credit goes to CerealCylerz for helping me with this idea!

Lil Scenario

[image]

So... here is a lil dream shared to me by CerealCylerz , hope you enjoy!

Quantum's POV:

Me (♓) and my friend, Amelia (♒), tried to get over the wall so we can be free. However, to get over the wall, we need to exchange credit cards. Until..... Oh no..... POLICE?! ARE YOU SERIOUS?! Not only that, it was Russia and Germany. Greeeeaaaat. They saw what we were doing and then, Russia dashed out of nowhere and twisted Amelia's arms. Literally. Rip Amelia.

I then screamed in panic. I watched the horror of my friend wailing in pain, I wanted to help her, but I'm pretty sure Russia would break my neck and ankles if I tried to. So I dashed into the streets, with Germany (in Nazi mode) chasing after me. I quickly jumped into the nearest river, swimming like a Minecraft player, and I swam back.

As I got out of the water, I was completely dry. I then see a person (♈) feeding piranhas bread, as the fish took one bite of the carbohydrate, their eyes glowed crimson red. The person then looked at me with a bright smile.

"I'm feeding evil fish!" The person said with glee.

Next, I ran into a large building. It was known as 'The Fandom House'. I entered the house to see many people, all from different fandoms, I wondered around the area to see the usual: North and South Korea getting along?! And as always, North is in a relationship with his nukes. Britain and my friend, WBG (♏), switched clothes but he still kept his monocle on. It seemed like Britain was regretting everything.

I kept on walking, to see my friend, Turquoise (♊). She turned to me.

"Oh hey Quantum, how are you?" She asked. I then grabbed her shoulders.

"HELP ME TURQS, I NEED TO HIDE!!" I panicked. Turquoise smiled at me.

"Don't worry, I got you a disguise!" She replied. She passed me a grey suit. I wore it and she gave me a mirror. I looked exactly like her. I thanked her, for making me look like I was her twin. I was then interrupted by the sound of a door busted open. No-one really payed attention apart from me, Turquoise, Britain and WBG. Britain was almost screaming because of the person being 'rude'. I then glanced at the figure who broke the door. It WAS GERMANY. His clothes were all drenched, probably because he chased me while I was swimming, Britain looked at him suspiciously while sipping his tea.

"WHERE IS THE DEMON?!" Germany screeched.

I then hid my face and crouched down.

This is the end of the scenario/dream and I'm sorry that not all zodiacs are here but that just happened in CerealCylerz 's dream so, here it is.

Happy Lunar New Year! + IMPORTANT

[image]

Happy Lunar New Year for those who celebrate it!
I hope everyone gets good luck this year, though some people aren't.

If you don't know what's going on, I'll explain it.

In Wuhan, China, a dangerous virus called Coronavirus has been spreading nearly all across Asia. Right now, there has been 50+ deaths and more than 2000 cases in Mainland China. There has also been 40+ cases in other countries, even the USA. If your country hasn't been affected yet, you don't need to panic, but stay careful.

I feel sorry for all those deaths and cases in those countries. If you want, maybe bring a mask, throat sweets, or any of the sort, but please do stay careful. I wasn't able to go to a festival for New Years for this. So, stay safe.

農曆新年快樂!

15K Special!! + What North's reaction was

[image] [image]

15K already? Wow!
I'm going to do a sequel of "What you catch North doing" for this chapter!
If you don't know what I'm talking about, here:

So.... Let's start!

Aries: Like before, he was really angry. To make up, you paid for the date QmQ He was thankful though, so keep that in mind.

Taurus: You invited yourself to sit next to them?? He glared at you, but he didn't really care. He glared at you because he thought you were going to steal his lover away from him xD

Gemini: Let's just say..... You took a picture of it. He found it and got a tad bit annoyed. You ended up deleting that picture. He wasn't that annoyed because you two and South are pretty much besties ^w^

Cancer: He woke up to hear you giggling outside the door, so he checked it out. He snatched your phone, deleted that picture and handed it back to you Little does he know, you already sent the picture to South and Japan

Leo: You joined in on the conversation and you dared North to flirt with his nukes. It ended up blushing even more and now, to this present day..... they are getting married North gave you thumbs up for being a good wingman LMAO-

Virgo: You were the DJ at prom, so when you spotted North and his nukes having the best day of their lifetime, you decided to be sneaky sneaky and played romantic music, so you can figure out how he dances with his nukes. He looked at you weirdly/

confused

Libra: You were not so far away from North, but he actually invited you to stargaze with him and his nukes (no joke) He stared at his nukes the whole time, not even bothering to look at the stars or anything else.

Scorpio: YOU PUSHED THEM OFF THE BALCONY- Just kidding, you questioned why they decided to take a spot on YOUR balcony. He "tched" and continued talking to his nuke. SO YOU PUSHED HIM OFF FOR BEING RUDE-

Sagittarius: You recorded it for North because he asked- no, FORCED you to do it and you showed/sent the video to him. He was happy with it

Capricorn: You replaced the body pillow with his real nukes. When you removed the body pillow, he looked scared but then, when you placed the real nukes into his arms, he hugged it even tighter like a desperate yandere

Aquarius: You took a picture of him painting the picture, then editing him to look kind of like Bob Ross, it turned out funny xD He found the picture and facepalmed with a look of disappointment

Pisces: He and his nukes blacked out, so you took the opportunity to draw on his face. He woke up, finding the ink on his face and is now trying to hunt the person who drew on his face. He was a n g e r y

Book cover art contest!

[image]

Lately, I've been thinking that this book needs a new cover. So I'm going to host an art contest! I will rank people's art from 3rd place, 2nd place and 1st place! Benefits are:

1st place: Has art as book cover, spoilers for next chapter, and a drawing!
2nd place: Same as 1st place, though you wouldn't have your art displayed as the cover.
3rd place: Just a drawing!

You can send the drawing/art to me at Discord or Instagram. Now, the important thing is that I will not accept anything stolen or traced. Good luck!

Discord: Trixedwaffle#4007
Instagram: floof_trixed_

What Britain's reaction was

[image] [image]

Again, with the North Korea chapter but Britain

Aries: So uh, he saw you and started to drag America faster, so he would have this go a bit faster, hoping you would forget. But'cha didn't-

Taurus: He invited you to drink the leaf soup with you, and this tea actually tastes pretty good-

Gemini: He was rollerskating with Canada, and you saw a bit of slips and falls, but he was okay. Eventually, he did see you and got really embarrassed.

Cancer: Nothing. Just nothing.

Leo: It was the year 2025, so it was pretty normal and common in Britain. He just saw you and waved, then continued on his business. Just plain ordinary?

Virgo: Eh, this is pretty average of him to do. He had his shopping trolley filled to the brim, with boxes of tea instead of toilet paper. Luckily, he didn't notice you and got a second trolley for more tea.

Libra: He wanted to take it off for a second because he was alone. But then he saw you and quickly put them both back on his head and face. Fortunately, you took a photo, ready to blackmail him in the future-

Scorpio: The following conversation went like this;
Britain: Playing Fortnite
Scorpio: Opens door
Britain: Continues playing
Scorpio: bRiTaIn!! HoW dArE tHeE pLaY sUcH a CuRsE!!
Britain: Quickly turns to Scorpio It's not what it looks like!
Scorpio: Deletes Fortnite software

Scorpio: Kicks Britain-

Sagittarius: You wanted to help, but decided not to. Britain saw you and asked for help, you declined and responded with a deep chuckle- Alternative: You helped him and gave him tips how to actually cook a decent meal.

Capricorn: You joined him. Colouring is stress relieving and fun anyways.

Aquarius: You spied on them 👀 That was until you saw the horror and devastation of the murder. You ran off. Britain heard the grass rustling.
Britain: thinking Was someone spying on us? No, that must be a squirrel.

Pisces: You were walking to the kitchen, to get some lemonade. Until. Le gasp! No way! He cannot be drinking coffee! He eventually saw you clinging and hiding behind the fridge, glaring at him. He found out what was going on.
Britain: Look, I can explain-
Pisces: Hisses BACK OFF TEA BETRAYER

[image] [image]

Heya, Trix here.

Some of you may heard of Operation Pridefall. If you don't, Pridefall is about a group on 4Chan spreading or commenting disturbing or inappropriate things to people or companies who support pride. Their goal is to make people homophobic or transphobic. This will start on June 1st, continuing until pride month has ended. This is targeted on most popular social media platforms, such as Twitter or Instagram.

I would recommend you to not share your sexuality, or if you have Instagram, keep your account(s) private until this is over. I want you all to stay safe, spread the word and please don't panic! That's what they want.

Thank you for reading this, Trixed Out!

Who you hung out with during the weekend

[image] [image] [image]

aha im running out of ideas help , also cant believe it's already 2021

Aries: Antarctica
You two had some snowball fights together! However, since it was abnormally cold at his country, you guys decided to head back to the igloo and enjoy some hot chocolate while telling some stories, Greenland and Leo joining the fun. (Kinda reminded me of the time I made hot choco, which the powder expired a year ago ~~and I drank it~~)

Taurus: Mexico
It was a really hot day outside, so you guys decided to have some paletas. Mexico chose mango flavoured, while you chose [insert favourite paleta flavour]. After you finished eating, you two were near a kids park so you decided to hang out there as the grown adults watch you large kids play on the small seesaw.

Gemini: South and North Korea
Of course, all you guys are best pals (except south and north despise eachother) so you hung out at their place to play some video games, mostly Cuphead. The two brothers kept on arguing on who's gonna be Mugman, just like the Undertale incident (Chapter 17 for more details). After all that arguing, you decided to pick South/North.

If you picked South:
South face lightened up. He then turned to North and said "In your face!". He proceeded to hop next to you and play as Mugman, while North sat in annoyance, glaring at South.

If you picked North:
North smirked, South's face beginning to fall. "Hah! See? I'll be playing Cuphead and you won't!" North chuckled in pride. He sat beside you and began to play. South crossed his arms and pouted.

Cancer: America
Although this is usually Japan's thing, you and America decided to dig out anime to watch. Until suddenly, you came across.... Hetalia. You've already seen it (I mean, what CH fan doesn't?), but here ol' buddy pal America hasn't. You two decided to watch it, mostly to see Ame's reaction. He has no idea what's coming. After watching a few episodes, you've noticed.... America seemed to blush AFTER SEEING HETALIA AMERICA BHAHAHAHHDJSJSJHSJSHS (Could this be a crush? 👀)

Leo: Greenland
You and Greenland were staying at his place, playing video games before heading out. You two spotted Antarctica's igloo and asked if you guys could join in. Of course, Antarctica and Aries agreed. All of you enjoyed your sweet, sweet hot chocolate and told stories and adventures.

Virgo: Germany
You and Germany went to a new cafe that just opened a few days ago, the interior had a cozy aesthetic feeling. You ordered some [insert favourite pastry or cake] and [insert favourite coffee/tea], while Germany ordered a black forest gateau and black coffee. It tasted delicious and were like you were at home.

^^ This is the table you were sat at ^^

Libra: France
France decided to surprise you, taking you to an ice skating rink. You had many trips and falls, but France made sure you were stable. She showed you some tricks she knew, leaving your mouth wide open [surprised pikachu face] . With a few practice, you managed to pull some off, France feeling proud. It was hard, but fun overall.

Scorpio: Norway
Y'all went shopping together, the prices are on sale for 50% off. You two went on a shopping spree, buying the best items for yourselves and eachother 🧔🪽. You surprised him with a plush of his national animal and he surprised you with an accessory you've always wanted. Three words. Treat. Yo. Self.

Sagittarius: England (No, not Britain)
Being the little chav he is, he took you to a skateboard park. You picked the F/C (favourite colour) skateboard, unless you already have a skateboard-- and England showed a few tricks. Sometimes, he fell off the skateboard during showing tricks, you found them pretty funny. After a few practice, you two were pretty good.

Capricorn: Czechia
You two went to a trampoline park, it was tons of fun, plus good exercise! Eventually, all that jumping tired you two out, so you guys decided to get slushies, you picked [insert favourite slushy flavour or combo], while Czechia got blue raspberry and strawberry. When you got home, you felt like you were still jumping for the rest of the day.

Aquarius: Canada (Istg, why does 'Aquarius' keep autocorrecting to 'Square'--)
Canada invited you over to watch him play an ice hockey match, so you decided to come. You sat down at one of the seats, watching Canada. His team was almost about to win, but he lost. Damn, better luck next time. Despite that, he still wore a smile and his happy attitude was still there. As long as he's happy, you're happy.

Pisces: Japan
You two went to the arcade, it was so colourful and neon, with tons of arcade games ready to be played. You guys had a little competition to see who would win the most tickets. And to your surprise, you won! With all those tickets, you bought a nerf gun and a lot of sweets/candy, while Japan got a large Doraemon plush.
